“ Tio/compadre pedrito always with a huge smile that would light up the room. A great men of god that would always give us great advice. I always remember when he first came to the u.s. how he would always talk about bringing his family so they could all be together and how I would remind him of his daughter because she was big and tall like me lol that would be cristy... tio you will be missed dearly, and will for ever live in our hearts! 🙏
