“ I became acquainted with Phil as a young boy in the late 1950s growing up on the near west side of North Aurora. He would let me climb up in the cab of his dump truck. May the family take comfort in cherished memories of Phil.

“ Phil Rippinger was a kind, brave, policeman, who cared about the people he served. He was present in his children’s lives and loved his wife and children. He had a nice demeanor and and it was always a pleasure to talk to him. He and Jan had a nice family and their children were a pleasure to know as well. We send all of you our prayers and sincerest sympathy. Ray & Marcie Boulay and family.
