Lots of great memories of our early years, especially when you, Lynn and I were like the three musketeers or maybe it was the little rascals. Either way, I never forgot those days.

“ I worked with Rich for 18 year's at Baileys Restaurant in Elmhurst, Illinois. It was a wonderful place largely because of the relaxed but very efficient management style of Rich. He ran a tight ship but we all had fun working there. We were like a big family, which included his wife Helen and mother-in-law, Ceal. I will miss him terribly.
