“ Hello,
A note to say that I was saddened by the passing of Bob. He and I were friends and he recruited me to become a Eucharistic Minister and Lector at Holy Trinity Church here in Shreveport. After that, which was several years ago, we would talk by phone, and have lunch together occasionally. I always had a very peaceful feeling after one of our visits.

Bob was a true friend, fellow Catholic, a very good Catholic and I am proud to say that he was my friend. I also enjoyed knowing Marion as well. They were special people and I know God has made a special place for them.

With condolences,
Tom Harlan
