“ My Uncle Bob had nieces and a nephew, Sharon Zinzer, Debora Bivens, Wendy Roesner and Donald Benditz that loved him so much. He taught us how to dance and we loved listening to records with him. We enjoyed working for him and listening to his stories about growing up in Chicago.
He is preceded in death by his loving brother Kenneth (Casey) Eddy and his loving sister Patricia J. Kuehl.
We will remember him fondly.

I am shock that you gone, no one let me! We were married for tens and knew for 15yrs. I tried many times to call you. You and your family never believe the reason why we fell apart. It truly heart of heart it wasn't because someone else. I loved deeply and so did Carrie and Jessie. We had wonderful times together. I will truly miss your smile. May you rest in God's arms. Love, Barb.

“ the world is a sad place without you Bob. So many good memories but one of my favorite is how he taught me how to change my oil, change a flat tire, do a tune up pretty basic but will worth the knowledge he gave me. I worked asking side him for many years painting another great thing to know. I love you Bob. please give mom a hug for me and shake dad's hand. Rest now till I see you again
