“ Dear Salerno Family,

Many years ago, I fell into a job of temporarily supporting Bob Salerno. That "temporary" assignment lasted more than 16 years. During that time I came to know him as a man of dignity, honor and principles. A man who treated everyone he encountered as worthy of attention, and respect. He had an uncanny way of remembering details about the person so at the next encounter they seemed like old friends. He cared about people. When it came time for him to retire, we (the company) presented him with the "Chief," something he said he wanted. Not sure if Kathy agreed, but she went along with it anyway. I wonder if the Chief still resides in the basement. Kathy, Michelle, Bob, Jr., and Brian, I know it's a very difficult time for you, but Bob is getting to know the angels now and many of us here on earth are praying for him and for all of you.

Wishing you peace, Carol Gugala
