“ So sorry to hear of Robin’s passing. I was married to his cousin Mick and they were very close. We were the Three Musketeers for a while back in the day before marriage and kids--so many great times together. Robin was Best Man in our wedding. Can’t believe he’s gone. What a sweet soul he was. Sincere condolences to the family.

My deepest condolences go out to Robin's family. He was such a sweet man and I will never forget him. I grew up in north aurora on John street. Robin was always so nice. What I most remember was his genuine smile. As a kid growing up I can honestly say he was one of the coolest and sweetest kids I knew and he grew up to be such a good man and loving father. He will be missed by all who were blessed to know him. The video was a beautiful tribute to his life. God bless and bring you comfort.
