“ My husband and I really loved Ron. Jeff first met Ron at Amoco in Naperville when Ron was working in a pilot plant. He was also our neighbor in Lakeside San Souci. He would always talk to us when we took a walk and offer us his pears in the fall. We enjoyed Ron's love for his property and garden. He also would tell us about his grandchildren with love and pride. We will surely miss our friend and express our sorrow for your great loss.

“ Our deepest sympathies to the Porte family.....

Kristen and I always admired Ron's yard and especially the decorations during the holiday season. We had the pleasure of finally meeting Ron recently at a neighborhood function and couldn't stop talking about the beauty in his voice. He will leave an everlasting impression with us and only wish we had more opportunity to converse with him. He will be sadly missed in the neighborhood.

Mr. Porte was a wonderful neighbor to us these past 8 years. Whether he was inviting the kids to pick fruit from his trees or offering me lawn care advice (and insisting that I use his tools!), he was always kind, always helpful. A couple months ago, the doorbell rang and I nearly didn't answer because I thought it was a solicitor. I'm very glad I did as it turned out to be Mr. Porte. He had just come by to tell us how good our house looked after having it painted. He could have called, he said, but he just had to come tell us in person. It was such a simple act, but it was a typical gesture of kindness from him, and it would turn out to be the last conversation we'd ever have. But then, maybe it's fitting that our very last words to him were 'Thank you'.

Our family is deeply saddened by Mr. Porte's passing. May his family find peace in the days ahead and joy in his remembrance.

All our best,
Paul & Danielle Bishop

We remember Mr. Porte a nice man. We lived in the area for over 20 years. He and my husband Brian Davenport was talking about Real Estate, which he became interested in a dream he had for giving back to family's in need. He was a nice man to talk to. I remember having long conversations , because he lived to talk. We will miss him. Odessa Davenport
