“ To the Thill family:

In December of 1998, I was fifteen years old. My mother kicked me out of my home in Colorado to live with my father at a trailer park for seniors in Mesa, Arizona, very close to Apache Junction. I attended school at Red Mountain High and came to know Bill and Rose Thill, who were my neighbors at the park. After school, I'd stop by their trailer and visit with them. Rose would harvest an orange from their orange tree and cut it up for us to share. They were the most gentle, caring, and thoughtful people I met during my six month stay in Arizona. I'm now 40 years old and Rose and Bill Thill are still on my mind and in my heart after all these years. Wish I had reached out to them while they were still here but I'm confident they know how much they made a difference in my life at a very challenging time. My condolences go out to every member of their family. I will always cherish the lessons they taught me, the faith by which they lived, and the love and concern they showed their fellow neighbors. Their winter home was always inviting. They spoke lovingly of all their family. Although it has been seven years since Rose and Bill went to Heaven, I hope their family may receive this message and know how much those two mean to me even now.

*Sincerely,

“ To the whole Thill family, and especially Deb and Dan, and Bill and Debbie: please accept our warm wishes of sympathy. It sure sounds like your mother lived a wonderful life, with very deep roots in the Annunciation/Marywood community, and many accomplished children and grandchildren. We hope that many happy memories of your time with her will give you lasting peace and comfort. With affection, Jim and Nancy Hopp

*Please allow me to extend my sympathy to the Thill Family - especially Cindy Thill Stoiber. Cindy, you and I worked together - for "little pay" but good times at Browns Flowers - yes, Wilma and Art Brown. There was Alice Gunther - who knew all and loved to gossip, Mel the wonderful designer in funeral flowers, and beautiful Fern who handled the cash and carry desk out front, our wonderful Uncle Bill, and then little Billy, Merelee - Mrs Browns favorite WHO could do no wrong. All the delivery guys, the ladies in the office - Art and Wilma were lucky to have so many good and hard working "flower children." Cindy, again, my sympathy to you and the extended Thill family.
