“ Marisa, Joanna, Diane, Rose, Frank and David, sending my heartfelt condolences. I have many memories of your mom. She was such a sweet and kind person. She was an excellent cook. I remember tasting some of her dishes she made, yum. I have many memories of the whole family since I lived across the street from your family. I remember seeing your mom at Riverview Diner and had a nice chat. I always kept in touch each year with a Christmas card. Keeping all of you in my prayers. May the memories you have of your Mom help comfort you.

“ As my high school Sunday school teacher in 1989, Mrs. Martinelli told our class that she would buy a leather bound bible inscribed with our names in gold lettering for any girl who memorized a verse each week for x weeks. I still carry that bible to church every week, 34 years later. Thank you, Mrs. Martinelli for inspiring me to hide God’s word in my heart.
