“ Aunt Sara is definitely in the arms of Jesus as she was an evangelist through and through. While getting credentialed as a Chaplain, she introduced me to her own Salvation Army Corps and was very supportive. For nearly three decades she offered her home to me when I would come visit Minnie Ma. She always offered a fresh bed, good food, time to catch up on the family, and simplicity which was very refreshing. She is assured a front witness seat from heaven as Father God releases His glory upon the earth this coming year. Hug Uncle Jerry for me and thanks for your encouragement from the heavens!
