“ So very sad to hear about Scott. I saw him a couple years ago at a reunion. He was the same ol' Scott, very happy, and always smilin' and generally interested in what was happening in ones life.... Memories live on forever, and we all have those..... God Bless you Scott!

“ So sad to learn of Scott's passing. Remembering him with a smile as he always gave a smile. Laughter. Jokes. Great times spent together in high school. Although I hadn't seen Scott since our HBR Reunion 4 yrs ago, you never forget someone dear to you. Keeping all of you in my prayers and wishing you peace.

“ I only knew Scott for 8 years or so, he always had a smile and an upbeat outlook. He was a happy go lucky social butterfly, quick with a joke or a laugh. I always knew him to be generous, selfless and willing to help others. He was the very definition of a friend. Scott you will be missed, my prayers to your family.

“ I only met Scott last year when we were both hired at Fedex and trained together. I was in the office as he was a driver but, he made sure to come in and say hello everyday! He was a dear friend to me and always made me smile. He became good friends with my father who was also a driver, as they shared the same sense of humor. I am very saddened by hearing of his passing tonight. I left Fedex a few months ago. I really wish I had the chance to say goodbye. Scott, You made me laugh whenever I saw you. You were a sweet and good hearted man. I wish we had known each other longer but I am grateful for ever knowing you at all. You make a impact on people. Your free spirit and joy for life. Heaven is lucky to have you and I hope to sit at the table with you some day buddy! We will enjoy that time after work someday after all pal. I will never forget you. Love
