“ Please know that Norma and I have all of you in our thoughts and prayers as you mourn the passing of Big T. We hope that you will all feel the presence of the Lord during these difficult days, and find peace knowing that Sharon is now in heaven with our Lord and Savior.

I am fortunate that I have a very warm and extra long handmade quilt that Sharon created for me, I sure many of you have something like this as well, what a wonderful way to remember her and her generous nature.

God bless, Ross and Norma Silvius

“ I would like to leave condolences to Sharons family and friends. I worked with Sharon for several years at RushCopley. I always knew when Sharon and I worked together our patients would be taken care of and she always knew what was going on with each. She would always let me know if they needed anything. She went quietly about her work and always had a smile.
