

Shirley M. Schelling

December 24, 1923 - October 5, 2016

Shirley M. Schelling, 92, of Aurora, was called by her Savior to her Eternal Home on October 5, 2016. She was born December 24, 1923, in Aurora, the daughter of Peter and Beatrice (Schryver) Burscheid.

She worked for many years at the Strand Restaurant in downtown Aurora where she met her future husband, Edward Schelling of Eola, IL. Ed and Shirley married in 1944 and made their home in Aurora. From that marriage of 62 years, they welcomed a son, James, and a daughter Susan.

Shirley enjoyed making friends wherever she went, never hesitating to lend a helping hand. She was a fun and loving “gram” to Jennifer and Marissa Scholtz and was excited to be “gigi” to her great-grandchildren Francesca, Luca, and Adalie. Every fall she looked forward to making several batches of her famous popcorn balls for family and friends.

She was welcomed to her eternal home by her husband; parents; step-father, Steven Danovich; sister, Marjorie Marks-Krocicka; and numerous family and friends.

She will be fondly remembered by her son, Jim Schelling; daughter, Sue (Gary) Scholtz; grandchildren, Jennifer (Paul) Stigianese and their children Frankie, Luca, and a baby to come February 2017 and Marissa (Mike) Lovro and their daughter, Adalie.

Shirley’s family will celebrate her life at a private service. May God be with you, till we meet again.

“ Growing up in the 50s, I lived at 916 Fulton Street, across from your family. I remember your mom very well, and have thought of her over the years. She was VERY sweet, and always seemed happy to see me on the rare occasions our paths would cross after I grew up. I hope her last years were happy ones. I remember Ed, as well, but not so clearly, except that he was handsome and always nice to us kids. (: I am sorry for your loss.
