“ I was privileged to know and work with Sister Josephus at Mercy during her years in Iowa City. I worked in labor/delivery and she was always a calming presence whenever we had a crises with a baby. She and Sister Mary Vernarda were a team at Mercy well known to the community, Thanks for the memories, Sister. Pat Williams

“ I was a student at the College of Nursing at the University of Iowa and was fortunate to be able to spend some time with Sister Joesphus...she had been one of my mom's (Sandra Carlisle Masterson) nursing instructors at St. Ambrose and I remember as a small child spending time visiting Sister. While I was a student and she was an administrator at Mercy Hospital, we had such fun going for pizza at Pagliai's on many occasions! She was always so upbeat and supportive! Thanks Sister Josephus!

“ Our family holds many fond memories of Sister Josephus. She stopped at least once and usually twice a day to visit mom when she was in Mercy Hospital and was such a calming presence. She lived a full life and touched many people through her ministry to God. Blessed be.

“ Dear Sister Josephus, I'm sitting in the big blue chair in "your room" amid a joyous cascade of memories. Thank you, dear, for visiting almost every fall until driving became too difficult. Your spirit is in this home and in our hearts forever. We love you so very much! Give Rosie a "Heavenly Hug," too. Norman Bissell & Family.

Dear Lamansky Family and Sisters of Mercy, Sister Josephus is still remembered at Mercy Iowa City. I can still see her driving a white Dodge across town and across the country - she enjoyed her road trips and seeing the country! She lived a full life and is now at peace. Mary McCarthy

“To a beloved woman and special friend. I thank you for your prayers and support you gave me when my children was in the hospital. You will always be in my memories!

All-powerful God, out of love for Christ and his Church, Sister Josephus served you faithfully in the religious life. May she rejoice at the coming of your glory and enjoy eternal happiness with her sisters in your kingdom. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen
