“ sorry to here of your loss and please except my deepest sympathies. I will always have great memories growing up with the martz family. I remember going over to their house and was always made soo welcome by Mr. and Mrs. Martz, terrific people. They made you feel so comfortable just hanging out with them keith and roger and who ever else was there.

“ I remember spending many years while growing up with the Martz family. Mr. Martz was always making me laugh. He was a very kind, and hard working man. He and Mrs. Martz were very sweet to me.

My favorite memory of Mr. Martz is the day I got married. The air conditioning went out at my house while getting ready, so we packed up and went to the Martz's house, where sandy did all of our hair, and Mr. Martz entertained us. I remember laughing at him carrying on about his dilemma that day: to attend my wedding or Caroline Kennedy's !

He brought joy to many, rest in peace Mr. Martz.

Love
