“ Just heard about Steve's death from sister (Carla Meister). So sorry to hear that - he was way to young! Just letting Judy, Mary and Rose know I'm thinking about you today and hoping that you can all continue to share fond memories of Steve in the years to come. Growing up with the Maxson's just blocks away, I do remember Steve giving Mary and I a hard time on various occasions - but, usually in fun (I think)! Considering he was the only boy in the family, he had plenty of opportunity to give we girls a hard time. And, being a few years older than Mary and I, we appreciated in high school keeping "an eye" on his friends (at least I remember keeping an eye on his friends). Steve was too much like a brother to think of that way! Glad I heard soon enough to send my condolences. Mary Meister (Seattle, WA)

“ Steve was an Aurora icon of sorts whom we enjoyed seeing and visiting with at all kinds of places - the casino, the park district, the local hangouts, even at the grocery store. We send wishes of sympathy to his sisters, nieces and nephews, knowing everyone will miss the twinkle in his eye and his perspective on life in Aurora. May you find peace and comfort in the happy memories. Nancy and Jim Hopp
