“ Countless days and evening on the lake, enjoying Steve's tremendous appetite for fun and laughter. Loved our night cruises with his steady seamanship. Never seen a man more proud, happy and satisfied with life as when he was pulling his two beautiful daughters on water skis behind his boat! Memories of Steve, Kiki and the girls will remain with us always.

“ To Kiki, Renee, and Nicole,

I had the distinct pleasure of working with your husband and father for almost 15 years. He taught me much, worked smarter and harder than most I know and was such a key part of MJ. I am deeply sorry for your loss. My last interaction with your father was a great one as we shared a few drinks with John Lavezzorio and Mike Venardi. We reminisced about business and colleagues and friends... Know that he is with you and that he will not be forgotten.

Your are all in our thoughts...

When I walked out on my deck for the first time and saw Steve, I said, "with a name like Oscarson, you must be a Swede." When he answered yes, I knew we would get along just fine and we did. I later discovered a relative of mine with the Oscarson name. We may have been related. Being a newbie lake house and boat owner, I was always asking him questions. I miss you Steve. RIP my friend and God Bless you and your family.
