“ My heart goes out the Susan Cardoza's family. May you find the strength to get through the next few days and the holidays and find comfort in the knowledge that Susan is at peace now, never having to suffer from any illness or discomfort ever again. Know that Susan touched many lives, mine included.

I also had the fortune of seeing her many times a week at her job. She never failed to ask me how my daughter was feeling and how my son was doing at school. It didn't matter if she was having a down or an up day, she never forgot to ask about others. I loved going into Walgreen's and searching for her stocking shelves, leaving the register unattended so I can play with her and call her a slacker. More often than not, she would refuse to ring me up in retaliation, or tell her supervisor that I was causing trouble.

Susan was a delight! I will truly miss her presence. Seeing her brightened up my day every time I saw her.

Just last month she came to my house after work to get some Rose of Sharon plants to plant around her home. I hope she was able to get those in the ground so her family can think of her every time they bloom for years to come!

The next tree I plant at my house will be dedicated to my friend Susan Cardoza!

Rest in peace girlfriend! I will miss you. I love you!

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Susan Cardoza.

I have had the pleasure of seeing her several times weekly at her work place. Always friendly, always smiling and one of the nicest people who I have ever met. I will miss her.

You were very fortunate to be blessed with such a wonderful person in your lives.

“ Grandma it's gonna be hard for all us to get through this but you're pain free. I'm gonna miss when you came home from work with lots of bags filled with your favorites. Whenever you would start dancing to the music I would listen too . I'm gonna miss hearing your laugh and how we would joke around with eachother. I miss you so much. Watch over us we all gained a beautiful gaurdian angel . I love you grandma.

“ Mom it's so hard knowing that I won't hear your voice or see your smile hear your laugh. Not seeing you sitting at your dining room table playing on you phone when we come thru the back door when we visit. Mommy my heart is broken. I miss you so much and I love you so much. This isn't goodbye momma it's until we meet again.

“ My sister Susan. I hope you really know how much love my heart holds for you. I wish that I had more time with you. Mom gave each of us unconditional love to each of us. My heart aches for everyone you left behind but I know through the grace of God we will give us some comfort and hope that whatever out there that you truly found peace and happiness because if anyone deserve it, it would be you. I love you so much and I will try my best to keep your memories alive. On day we will see again.
