

Tanya M. Smyth

January 31, 1976 - April 11, 2016

Tanya Melissa Smyth, 40, passed away April 11, 2016 in her home in Batavia Illinois. She was an incredible person, so full of fierce loyalty and spirit, humor and vulgarity, warmth and kindness. Her laugh and how she made you feel amazing and special just by being with her will be devastatingly missed.

Tanya had severe migraines that plagued her day to day existence but she was so incredibly much more than that. She loved to read. She was a freelance writer who wrote for the Kane County Chronicle and Midwest magazine. Tanya was currently taking a citizen's police academy course with her mother. She was working on getting her pilots license, had flown a plane by herself, and she loved all the amazing trips she got to take with her family. Tanya loved animals. Her cat Dorian gave her so much love, laughter and joy.

Family was at the core of who Tanya was. She spent Sunday nights with her mom and brother and cat, playing games, watching shows they could laugh themselves breathless at and sharing a meal.

Tanya is survived by her mom, Mary "Mardi" (Fagerholm) Smyth, her dad, James "Jim" Smyth, her brother Samuel James Smyth and her beloved cat Dorian. She is also survived by a huge family who loved her, friends too numerous to name and all the people whose lives she touched with her humor, individuality, strength and beauty.

Rest, our sweet, tough, hilarious girl. Our lives are better for you being in them. We love you always and you will remain in a place in our hearts that no one else could fill.

“ I knew her from Borders and a Family member and she was so full of energy and a kind spirit.

I was crushed to find out that she has passed on.

My prayers are with the Family and Mary and Sam.

Warmest Regards and with Deep Sympathy,

Ray Jones.
