“ It was an honor to know Teresa during her last years spent at Alden Memory Care. Dementia is a tough disease, but she bore it well and without complaint. When we first came to Alden she was still interactive and a gentle spirit; we enjoyed getting to know her interests such as sewing, frogs, and music. Liz's life is a testament to Teresa's devotion & skills as a mother; what a blessing that she knew her daughter right up to the very end. We will miss her, but now she is blessed to have peace, rest, and healing in the arms of Jesus.
