“ Terry was a blessing and everyone at Open Door is grateful for the time we were given to get to know him. He was quick with a smile, kind, and generous. I remember on more than one occasion when Terry, even with his bad knees, would be the first to help pick items from the floor that another person had dropped. We miss the kisses he would place on our hands but most of all we miss his compassion and kindness. Thank you to the Byrne family for the opportunity. We are forever blessed.
