“ I was blessed to serve as Theresa's pastor while she was at Plum Landing. Her faith always encouraged and inspired me. I will remember her spirit of determination. My prayers are with the family and her loved ones.

“ I don't personally know the Apacellar family but my sincerest condolences for the loss of your beloved Theresa. My late Father bought John and Theresa's home in Aurora in the late 1960's. And, when I was in 2nd grade, I remember we used to receive the Apaceller's mail. I thought their name was "Groovy"! It was just the nicest last name, and I never forgot it. John and Theresa must've been a sweet and lovely couple. May your beautiful memories of your loving Mother bring you comfort and peace. God bless the Apaceller family.
