“ I have known him for 14 years. He is my father in law and once my dad passed away he took on the role as another dad to me.he loved his grandson wyatt so much. The funny thing is he hated to be called papa by anyone until wyatt came along then that whole word became a whole new meaning to him once wyatt started calling him that. He loved it! Wyatt always would go and ask papa for suckers out of his candy jar. They would spend time watching tv or watching him play video games. He loved that little boy so much. He will be missed so much.

“ My nephew Tom will be missed. Because of circumstances beyond our control the closeness we could have had was lost. I always thought of Tom on his birthday and remember the cute little dickens he was,always getting into mischief! I loved him.
