Missing you dearly, Tim. I love you..We didn't see eye to eye on a TON of things, but you knew you were loved by everyone. If I could have that Friday back, I would have done everything in my power to help you. I'm so sorry that we couldn't do more to help you through your struggles...Time will never heal this pain nor will it ever get better. Soar with the angels and have fun with Uncle Kevin, Great-grandpa and Scott...I know they also had a heck of a time watching over you, you definately kept them busy...We all now have another guardian angel watching over us...Rest in peace my first born son and keep us safe. I love you.

We are so sorry for your loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Tim was a gentle soul, who loved his family very much. I had some long talks with Tim, many of times he talked about wanting to get on the right track in life, he so wanted to please his Grandma & Grandpa, he hated to disappoint you. Tim, rest easy young man, you are now at peace. Sincerely, Duane & Cyndi LaVarier

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am so devastated to hear about Tim. He was a great person and will be missed by many. Tim was a great student and showed a genuine care and respect for others. He loved helping Grandpa out. TO GRANDMA and GRANDPA, you were always there for him and he loved you both greatly..I know because he always talked about you both and always said he hated letting you guys down. You were the wind beneath his wings. May Tim find the Peace he had been searching for and your family find strength through this trying time. Thoughts and prayers are with you always. Missing you, Regina Smith
