May 11, 1985 - March 3, 2015

Trina M. Seidelman, 29 of Montgomery passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, March 3, 2015. She was born May 11, 1985 in Aurora.

Trina had a heart of gold. She routinely went out of her way to care for others, often putting them first in her life. She was very sentimental about various personal objects from people near to her and would keep them close to her for comfort. Trina's caring nature touched many people and she will be deeply missed.

She was a member of St. Joseph Church. She was a very creative person, who loved art and watching movies. She played high school softball and also for the Aurora leagues. Trina loved ballet and hip hop dancing and really enjoyed fishing with her father.

Survivors include her parents Joanne and Gary Seidelman; her brother Daniel T. Webster Jr.; paternal grandfather Donald F. Seidelman Sr.; maternal grandmother Jane Christensen; her aunts and uncles Jamie (Al) Crumpton, Tom (Kathy) Seidelman, Tony (Julie) Seidelman, Terry (Anna Marie) Seidelman, Donna Rubar, Logan Dean Jr., Donald F. Seidelman Jr. and Jim Krause; great aunts and uncles, Cookie Beilman, Jim Hansen, Bill Hansen, Marcia Duvick, several cousins, and her niece, Lanie Elkins.

She was preceded in death by her paternal grandmother Shirley Seidelman; maternal grandfather Logan Dean Sr.; her grandfather Borg Christensen; one uncle Darryl Dean; her great uncle Andrew Beilman and great aunt Donna Hansen.

Funeral services will be Wednesday, March 11, 2015 from THE DALEIDEN MORTUARY at 11:30 am to St. Joseph Church at 12:00 noon. Fr. Jerome Leake will officiate with interment in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Visitation will be Tuesday, March 10, 2015 from 4:00 pm until 8:00 pm at THE DALEIDEN MORTUARY, 220 N. Lake St. Aurora, IL. 60506. (630) 631-5500. A liturgical wake service will be at 4:30 pm.

It's been 8 years... I was thinking about you today. I remember I met you through Katie R. & Angel, B. You were kind, funny, and quick witted. I know of your passing after I left IL, and wish that I would have kept in contact after moving. Even in your darkest days, you seemed to find beauty around you. You're poetry came from your soul, reflected through your beautiful eyes. Although people leave us for reasons we can sometimes not fully comprehend, they are never forgotten. Thank you Trina for the wonderful memories today, you made my dim day brighter. :) - Vanessa Owen

“ Trina you have been heavy on my mind more than normal . I wish more than anything I could get a big hug from you and just sit and talk for hours . I know your hugging your mom so tight and enjoying your time catching up . I know you two have truly missed each other. I have had your dad and Dan on my heart and praying that they are doing the best they can to grief the loss of the two of you . We are having a family reunion next month and I am so excited but sad at the same time . Wishing more than ever you could be here with us to see everyone again . We spoke often about wanting to plan a reunion like we always had as kids . I know the reunion your having in heaven is by far much better . I love and miss you beautiful cousin of mine. Until we meet again ❤️

“ Trina,
Within moments of meeting you, my heart had decided (without consulting me btw lol) that you had a piece of it and as we went through our experiences, that became very apparent to me. Not that I didn't want to love you... I did... what I'm saying is that even once we were going through struggles, I still loved you and I knew a part of me would always love you. I would never turn you away if you showed up at my door and when I was in "the neighborhood", I would look for you even as the years passed. And I knew that if I showed up at your door, I wouldn't be turned away because that is the love you feel for each other, no matter what. You are such a beautiful soul.... and the love I shared with you has never been touched because no one, no one else could be you. My sweet girl.... I hope you have reached a place of peace where you can take a moment and know that love surrounds you. Always.

“ Oh baby girl of mine, today I'm getting a tattoo of my broken heart which will never be fixed. It will stand for my love for you. It's been 1 very fast year for us and that's because of our love for you, you are thought of 365 days a year. We all pray for you and are hearts are broken. We love you baby girl, you just can't emagin how much even when you were here with us. We celebrated your 1st anniversary in the back yard, your brother thought of everything, except the cold weather that day . Lay in pease my child and we will see you again, with enough prayers

Laid some flowers on your grave today. Red roses. Cliche, I know, but still beautiful like you. I'm glad my husband was with me, because I don't think I could do it alone. I can't believe an entire year has gone by. You being gone is still so painful, and so shocking, even standing over you in the cemetery, I was imagining all the horribly morbid jokes you were probably making at my expense. You humor, no matter how morbid, always got me through the day, no matter how bad things got. I wish I could just hear your laughter one more time. Miss you like crazy, Trina. Xoxo See you whenever, Baby Girl.

“ Today was a beautiful day and yes I had you on my mind. So I went to visit you.. It doesn't seem possible that you have been gone almost a year. Seems like yesterday we talked about getting the family together for a picnic and some good laughs.. How we both miss our family picnics. You kept me going when I wanted to let go . The sunshine that made me see the way . How I wish we would have talked more . I know your in a much better place but my heart still misses you . I love n miss u my wonderful cousin. Until we meet again .. Fly high above us as we finish our journey here on earth..

“ I feel like even now there is no way you can be gone. I remember the day I met you. You were getting smokes at that gas station by your house and I was getting gas. You said you liked my pants. We had plenty of rough times, but I like to think we had way more good times. Everyday I wish that I had gotten through to you more. That maybe if I sent just one more text or message that you would have responded. But I accept that you are in a better place now. You helped me through a lot Trina. You helped me see that it didn't matter that it's okay just to be me. You were far too beautiful of a soul to be in this dark world, and I only hope you now see how loved and special you really were.

*Joanne,
I haven't seen you in many years I don't know if you remember me. I was very close with Trina in high school and a few years past. I was the person who she got the apple with hope tattoo for. We had fallen out of touch over the past several years but she always remained close to my heart. I wanted to say that my heart is broken for her and your family. What a great and unimagivable loss you are suffering. She was a beautiful person with so much love to give. I was so shocked and saddened by the news. I am not in the area so I wasn't able to make it to the services but my heart and prayers were with you all those days. I am lifting you, Gary and Dan up in prayer daily during this difficult time. If it would be okay with you I would like to send you a person email. If not I totally understand. Just know you are in my heart.

“ Trina,

There are so many wonderful memories that you and me have shared together that will always be precious to me. You and I shared the same interest in movies and laughter. When i say movies and laughter I am talking about the classic fantasy and cartoon movies. There is always something about cartoon and fantasy, plus a little bit of comedy, that makes the heart light up and bring out laughter to make a better day. You and me have always loved Alice in Wonderland especially the character "Cheshire Cat" because 1.) he is a cat and 2.) he is silly and we love cats and are incredibly silly so it just makes sense why we like him so much. I remember us going to the movies one night and after the movie was done and we were driving home the moon happened to be crescent shaped and we both said at the same time "It looks just like the Cheshire Cat's smile from Alice in Wonderland!" and burst out laughing. Those moments I treasure the most because there was a connection to the heart and imagination that had always started from our childhood and will last on in my heart. When I see the moon like that from now on, I will think of it more as your smile to cheer me up and keep me happy. I know that you are in your own beautiful Wonderland.

Love You So Much Cousin,

“ Trina was a good friend of mine in grade school and high school. We lived in the same neighborhood and spent a great deal of time together. She cared for me in a way that no other girl had before when I was just a kid. I will always be grateful to her for opening my mind and eyes. Peace to her and her family.
