“ While it is always difficult to lose a loved one, the lasting memories of time spent together will always overcome the sadness. As a little boy, I remember what a special surprise it was when Aunt Wanda would visit my grandparents' house for Christmas and other occasions. Browsing through the photos and memories posted here brought a smile to my face as I can tell Aunt Wanda touched the lives of family and friends for decades. Let us all remember the many ways Aunt Wanda would brighten our days through kind words, loving gestures or delicious food!

“ A wonderful person. Like her WINGS group, Wanda, Cathy and I took great trips together. We had such a good time and it ALWAYS involved food!! I have the Cavato recipe for meatballs and I will treasure that. I will miss her beyond belief. My heart hurts. To her children, grandchildren and great grandchild, I am so sorry for your loss. She loved you all so much. Let's not forget Chuck, John, Kevin and Bradley. You guys were so good to her and she really did appreciate it. Who will I call with the latest movie or tv show to watch? We could talk about anything. She was the best.

Vanda and Wanda in Rome Italy. We had a great time. When we were in Florence, we spent a lot of time walking trying to find this one gelato store. It was worth it. We loved Capri and Sorrento. Wanda bought her daughters some ceramic pieces in Capri. We shopped for venetian glass in Murano.

Family and Friends,

My dear Aunt Wanda was a treasure in so many ways, but most of all in her loving care for her children and her family members, of which I was very proud to be her nephew. She always had heartfelt, soothing and funny things to say to cheer your day. She was the little sister of my Dear Ol' Dad, Edward, a World War II veteran in Patton's Third Army (1942-1945), and the last time we talked, she told me how worried she was, and how much she loved him, when he went off to war. That was my Aunt Wanda, always knowing the touching things to say that you will never forget. Let us remember in this difficult time, what The Beatitudes say: Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
