

William E. Leech

July 21, 1952 - February 16, 2025

William Leech, 56, of Aurora, Illinois passed away Sunday, February 16, 2025 at Ascension Resurrection Hospital. He was born July 21, 1952 in Aurora, Illinois. After his heart surgery struggled many medical conditions.

Bill married the love of his life Jami Calamaras-Leech who he thought made the sun shine every day, they shared the simple things of life together. Young years of bartending throughout the Aurora area made Bill many friends.

Bill was a proud U.S. Army veteran of the Vietnam War. He loved the history of his country with many many beautiful heart bound books. He enlightened that passion with the old movies and music galore, he also enjoyed scary movies would stand and shout with suspense at the movie theater. Bill found love with his two dogs, Maggy and Sasha. Bill was the light of every party.

“ Billy was a dear friend of my Husband Brian "Pinkie" Kish. They both worked together at Ward's Place and LTD's. He was such a kind and caring man. I knew Billy through Brian at LTDs; he was just full of life and always had a smile. We would have loved to pay our respects to the family and understand. We will be praying for him and the family. Thank you for putting his obituary so we all knew of his passing, he meant a lot to both of us.
