“ What a wonderful Uncle Bill was. We had some of greatest 4th of July parties at Bill's home. A lot of good memories. Bill was a hard working man, he had been through the good and bad times. He handled life like a roaring lion and he never let it beat him down. You will be greatly missed by all.

I am confident that William is enjoying storytelling with "Mooseheart Red Ramblers" that have preceded him. John Upton, "UPS" Mooseheart Class of '70
